

The “Black Ponies” Of Light Attack Squadron Four (VAL-4) Came Into Being On January 3, 1969 When The Squadron Was Commissioned At Naval Air Station North Island Located A Short Ferry Ride Across The Bay From San Diego, California. In March Of 1969 143 ‘Plankowners’ Deployed 14 OV-10A Broncos To South Vietnam. The Squadron Quickly Established Headquarters At Naval Support Activity Binh Thuy, And Operations Began In April Of 1969. Flying Out Of The Air Force Air Base At Binh Thuy And The Army Airfield At Vung Tau, The “Black Ponies” Started Providing Air Support To United States And Allied Forces Throughout The Mekong Delta And Surrounding Area. During It’s Short Three Year Lifetime, Seven OV-10A Bronco Aircraft Were Lost In Combat, Six Pilots And One Observer Were Killed In Action And Nine Others Were Wounded In Action. Approximately 695 Officers And Enlisted Men Built The “Black Pony” Legacy:

Total Flight Hours – 42,862
 Total Sorties – 21,802
 Confirmed Enemy Killed By Air – 4,531
 Structures Destroyed – 4,763
 Sampans Destroyed – 1,036
 1 SLA Trawler Sunk

The VAL-4 “Black Ponies” Stopped Flight Operations On March 31, 1972 And The Squadron Was Disestablished In The Philippine Islands On April 10, 1972.
